When you access the website www.revhram.com, information may be stored or retrieved on your browser, mainly in the form of cookies. This information will be in the form of a "cookie" or a similar file and may be used to make the user experience more efficient.

This Cookie Policy describes the types of cookies that are captured, for what purpose, the legal basis, and retention. It also indicates how to disable or delete cookies on your device. If you have any questions, please contact us at lgpd@revhram.com.

What are Cookies?

Cookies are small files downloaded by the website on your device to improve your experience and may contain personal data. The cookie allows the website to "remember" your actions or preferences over time.

What are the types of collected Cookies?

Functional Cookies: Storage or technical access is strictly necessary for the legitimate purpose of allowing the use of a service explicitly requested by the user or for the sole purpose of transmitting communication through an electronic communications network. The legal basis for this processing is Legitimate Interest, and the data will be kept for the necessary period to fulfill the purpose. At any time, the user can delete cookies in their browser.

Statistics Cookies: Storage or technical access is necessary to collect data and information about how users use the site, which pages they visit most frequently on that site, the occurrence of errors, or information about the site or application's performance. The legal basis for this processing is Consent given in the cookie banner. This consent can be revoked at any time by accessing the cookie banner. The data will be kept for the necessary period to fulfill the purpose. At any time, the user can delete cookies in their browser.

Marketing Cookies: Storage or technical access is necessary to create user profiles to send advertising or to track the user on a site or across multiple sites for similar marketing purposes. The legal basis for this processing is Consent given in the cookie banner. This consent can be revoked at any time by accessing the cookie banner. The data will be kept for the necessary period to fulfill the purpose. At any time, the user can delete cookies in their browser.

How do I delete cookies on my device?

You can disable and delete cookies in your browser. However, this may affect your access and the functionality of the site. All browsers allow you to configure how they work with cookies. Access your browser's settings function to make this change. The quickest way to find instructions for configuring your browser is to access Google and type "how to configure cookies on" followed by the name of your browser (Chrome, Safari, Edge, among others).

Where to find additional information?

If there is any issue, question, complaint, or request regarding the processing of Personal Data, you can contact us at lgpd@revhram.com.
